

Locations around Thame Buckinghamshire

Brill. The church is used in Four Funerals and a Wedding and in the same episode the Red Lion doubles as the John Knox pub. The incident room is also located in the village. The well-known windmill appears in A Tale of Two Hamlets.

Chearsley. The Bell Inn becomes the The Woodman in Country Matters and the local post office is Elverton Village Store.

Cuddington. The village shop appears in Death of a Stranger and Not in my Backyard and becomes the Paradorma shop in Talking to the Dead. The Crown appears in Death in Disguise. An incident unit is set up in the Bernard Hall in Death of a Stranger which in Death and Dreams appears as the band headquarters. The Spanish evening in Bad Tidings and Cyrus's talk in Talking to the Dead take place here as the Village Hall.

The graves of Tom Hicks and Douglas Hammond in Shot at Dawn are in the churchyard. Village houses appear in Birds of Prey, Bad Tidings and Death and Dreams and as the vicarage in Talking to the Dead.

Dinton. The village green is Midsomer Barton's Oak Apple Day in Dead Letters and the site of a well in Who Killed Cock Robin. The pub is used for the exterior of The Hearts of Oak pub in Dead Letters and the church for the wedding in Who Killed Cock Robin.

Haddenham. The church and nearby pond have appeared in Birds of Prey, Judgement Day and A Talent for Life. Many village properties featured in Vixen's Run, Orchis Fatalis and Midsomer Life.

Long Crendon. The Manor House is seen in Garden of Death, Things that go Bump in the Night and The Axeman Cometh and the road outside is used in A Tale of Two Hamlets and Second Sight. The High Street features in Tainted Fruit, The House in the Woods, Blood Wedding and Blood on the Saddle.

The Eight Bells appears in A Tale of Two Hamlets and as the Florey Arms in Blood in the Saddle. It is also seen in The Oblong Murders. Blood Wedding has scenes of the library and of the church, which also appears in Dead Letters.

Nether Winchendon. The church features in Things that go Bump in the Night and a house nearby in Death in Disguise.

Nether Winchendon house is used as 'The Lodge of the Golden Windhorse' in Death in Disguise and as Lynton Pargetter's home in Talking to the Dead.

Shabbington. The Old Fisherman pub features in A Talent for Life.

Wainhill. The railway crossing is used in Death in a Chocolate Box.

Worminghall. The village hall is used as Midsomer Mere school in Second Sight and the disused airfield appears in A Talent for Life.

Locations around Thame Oxfordshire

Adwell. The church is Midsomer Parva Church in The Sword of Guillame and Death and the Divas.

Aston Rowant. Village houses appear in The House in the Woods and as the Virtue Arms and village store in A Sacred Trust.

Chinnor. The railway station is Holm Lane Junction in Death in a Chocolate Box.

Village houses are used for Trevor Minchin's house and Woodley and Woodley tailors in The Made to Measure Murders.

Crowell. The Shepherd's Crook pub is The Apple Tree pub in The Night of the Stag.

Gt Haseley. St Peter's Church appears in the wedding scenes in Midsomer Rhapsody and the postman's funeral in Dark Autumn.

The Village Hall becomes an antique shop in Dark Autumn; the book signing session in The Fisher King; Midsomer Parva village hall in Blood Wedding; the location of the recital in The Silent Land; the photographic exhibition in Picture of Innocence and also appears in Not in my Backyard.

The Plough pub is where Barnaby and Troy play Aunt Sally in Dark Autumn and appears as March Magna library in The Silent Land.

Village houses feature in Picture of Innocence, The Silent Land, Days of Misrule, Hidden Depths and Midsomer Rhapsody.

Henton. A village house features as Ford's house in A Rare Bird.

Lewknor. The school appears as a school in A Tale of Two Hamlets and The House in the Woods.

Village houses feature in A Tale of Two Hamlets, The House in the Woods and Death and Dust.

Little Haseley. Many village properties have featured in Dark Autumn, Hidden Depths, and Midsomer Rhapsody. The manor house became Melvyn Stockard's house in Who Killed Cock Robin.

Moreton. Chestnuts farm was used for the home of one of the victims in Death and Dreams.

Stoke Talmage. The church is used for the funeral scenes in Orchis Fatalis and where Joyce and Tom are seen walking in the churchyard.

Sydenham. The church appears as the church of Midsomer Abbas and the Crown Pub is The Stag Inn in The Night of the Stag.

Towersey. Village houses appear as Adam Keyne's house in Tainted Fruit and Connor Simpson's house in Death in Chorus.

Thame Park. The house doubles as Tye House in Death's Shadow. The grounds are used for the hunt scenes in Death of a Stranger.

Thame

• OXFORDSHIRE •

Midsomer Murders Trail 11

For information regarding accommodation please visit www.southernoxfordshire.com/

Or you might try:

The Spread Eagle 16/17 Cornmarket Thame OX9 2BW - 01844 213661

The Oxfordshire Golf Hotel & Spa Rycote Lane Thame OX9 2PU - 01844 278300

The Oxford Belfry Milton Common Thame OX9 2JW - 01844 279 381

The Lambert Arms Aston Rowant OX49 5SB - 0843 357 5534

Travel Lodge Long Crendon Road Thame OX9 3SB - Reservations 08719 848484

For details about guided tours of Thame please contact:

Thame Museum visits co-ordinator 01844 215178 / 212891

Ideal group size of 10 to 25 (£5 per person)

Larger parties may be divided into two or more groups.

Thame Museum 79 High St Thame OX9 3AE

www.thamemuseum.org/

www.visitmidsomer.com

Midsomer Murders filming locations in and around this historic market town

Midsomer Murders in Thame

A Thame Museum was used for the interior scenes of Causton Museum in Secrets and Spies, where Jones is chatted up by the attractive

B Thame Town Hall first appears as the Causton Arts Centre in The Maid in Splendour but is Causton Town Hall in Shot at Dawn and Not in My Back Yard. Joyce is seen singing carols outside the Town Hall in Days of Misrule.

C The Buttermarket appears in the Coronation scene at the start of Vixens Run. The Coffee Shop is where Barnaby is given a kiss and hug by a stranger in Picture of Innocence and in the same episode the Fuji shop becomes Fixpix Photos of Causton. Barnaby and Jones have a coffee in Pump Lane in Dead in the Water. Harriet Davis Estate Agents from The House in the Wood is now Tim Russ Estate Agents.

D Kew Bookbinding became the printers for Cully's wedding service cards in Blood Wedding. Barnaby and Jones are late picking them up and the shop is closed, so they try to break-in.

H Various street scenes have featured in the Cornmarket. The Spread Eagle became The Morecroft Hotel in Midsomer Life with scenes shot both inside and out and in the rear car park. Barnaby tries to break up a fight here and gets punched in the face. The interior also features in Vixens Run, and in the same episode the Oxfam Bookshop, across the road, became Jenny's Cover to Cover book shop.

G The Citizens Advice Bureau became Midsomer Life newspaper office in the episode Midsomer Life, although Barnaby and Jones exit through the iron arch of the public toilets. It also appears as Causton Library in Vixens Run.

E In the Upper High Street Rumsey's chocolate shop was converted to Madrigals camera shop in Picture of Innocence which also had scenes at 17 Upper High Street. The nearby Swan Hotel features in Vixens Run.

F The court yard behind 34 Upper High Street appears in Vixens Run and was used as the funeral parlour in Things that go Bump in the Night.

